

Fact Sheet

- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information is designed to strengthen quality child care and early education through education of and encouraging participation nutrition, health, and wellness initiatives.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information has been helping child care providers grow healthier children since 2014.
- Samantha Marshall, Co-founder and President of T&L Foundation for Child Care Information heads the organization out of Moorpark, Ca.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information provides support to child care providers nationwide.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information is unique because in addition to providing support to providers, T&L Foundation for Child Care Information has a program called “Removing Roadblocks” which is established to enable providers to get licensed and, in this case, maintain their license.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information is working on a Child Care Food Access Solutions Project with Wildwood CACFP in Colorado.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information awarded the first mini-grant recipients in 2016. Fifteen grants were awarded out of more than 1,000 who applied. Thirteen child care providers and two CACFP sponsors, across the nation, were awarded the mini grants.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information Board and Advisors comprise business professionals, playground designer, CACFP professionals, financial planner and freelance producer who bring their vast amount of experience to the organization.
- T&L Foundation for Child Care Information provides support to groups of people/entities including:
 - Family Child care Providers
 - Child Care Centers
 - CACFP Sponsors
 - Child Care Resource and Referrals
 - Child Care Associations
 - Unregulated Child Caregivers (Friends, Family and Neighbor care, Nannies)
 - Parents as Caregivers – extending what is being learned in the child care environment as well as educating them to choose child care that has a focus on nutrition, health and wellness.